Graduate Program Area
Master Reading Teacher (MRT)

The course requirements for the MRT are as follows.

RDNG 674: Developmental Reading in the Elementary School.
Methods and materials of reading instruction in the elementary grades; past, present and emerging programs; organization of developmental, corrective and speed-reading programs in high school and college.

RDNG 604: Reading Diagnosis.
Appraisal and diagnosis of reading problems; practicum in administration and interpretation of individual reading inventories. RDNG 604 and RDNG 642 are offered in consecutive semesters, usually Summer I and II, for a sustained experience with a child.

Prerequisite: RDNG 674

RDNG 642: Clinic Teaching in Reading.
Practicum in recognition, diagnosis, remediation and corrective procedures of reading-study problems; demonstration and laboratory analysis of physiological and psychological factors relates to reading disabilities. RDNG 604 and RDNG 642 are offered in consecutive semesters, usually Summer I and II, for a sustained experience with a child.

Prerequisite: RDNG 674 and RDNG 604 (to be taken the subsequent semester)

RDNG 616: Organization and Supervision of Reading Programs.
Organization of school reading programs; role of reading supervisor in program implementation, staff development, program evaluation. Coordination of reading services with total curriculum.

Prerequisite: RDNG 674

For more information about the MRT, please visit our website.

Contact:
Dr. Emily Cantrell  Kerri Smith  Clarissa Gonzalez
Clinical Assistant Professor  Assistant Director  Academic Advisor II
222D Harrington Tower  104A Heaton Hall  104C Heaton Hall
Office Phone: (979) 845-8384  Office Phone: (979) 862-8032  Office Phone: (979) 862-8032
E-mail: aggieemily@tamu.edu  E-mail: krsmith@tamu.edu  E-mail: tlacgant@tamu.edu