Open Rank Tenure-Track Faculty Position in Teacher Education

Tenure-Track Faculty (open-rank) in Teacher Education. Professional duties will include teaching teacher education courses (face to face and online) at the graduate and undergraduate levels; securing extramural funding to support research and program development; maintaining an active research and publication agenda in teacher education that is of national/international prominence; having a commitment of working with diverse student populations; chairing and serving on doctoral committees; working collaboratively with P-16 schools, colleagues on and off campus, community, state and global partners. In addition, the faculty member is expected to join university-wide efforts to conduct research and program development in teacher education. The successful candidate should have extensive funding and research in teacher education.

Application: Send electronic and hard copy letter of application or nomination, curriculum vitae, two sample articles, and names and contact information of three references to the attention of Dr. Hersh C. Waxman, Search Committee Chair at the following address:

Ms. Tammy Reynolds
Department of Teaching, Learning and Culture
College of Education and Human Development
Texas A&M University
College Station, TX 77843-4232
Email: t-reynolds@tamu.edu
Department Website: http://tlac.tamu.edu

Review Date: Review of applications will begin as soon as possible and will continue until the position is filled.

Texas A&M University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer committed to creating and maintaining a climate that affirms diversity of both persons and views, including differences in race, ethnicity, national origin, gender, age, socioeconomic background, religion, sexual orientation, and disability; veterans are encouraged to apply.